

Seminar: Management of (small and medium-sized) project-oriented organization

Prof. Roland Gareis (Austria)

Date: May 21, 2011

Time: 11.00 – 15.00

Place: Ringi 35, Pärnu, room 113

Pärnu College, University of Tartu,

Who Should Attend?

- Executives, organization developers, HR managers, program managers, and project managers desiring to enhance their management competences
- Knowledge of basic project management concepts is required

What Will the Participants Benefit?

- Recognizing the characteristics of project-oriented organizations
- Learning about the strategies, structures, processes, roles, and cultures of the project-oriented organization
- Understanding the benefits of projects and programs in managing the project-oriented organization
- Reflecting the specific challenges of small and medium-sized project-oriented organizations

What Topics Will Be Covered?

- Strategies, structures, and cultures of the project-oriented organizations
- Projects and programs as temporary organizations
- Program management – processes, methods, and roles
- Project portfolio management - processes, methods and roles
- Project portfolio reports
- The PM Office - services and organization

What are the Working Methods?

- Presentations, discussions, case studies
- Moderated group work sessions